

Part IA Paper 04: Set Texts 2024-25

Syllabus

- Plato, Meno (lectures provided by the Faculty of Classics)
- Descartes, Meditations on First Philosophy
- J. S. Mill, On Liberty and The Subjection of Women

Course Outline

This paper offers an introduction to the study of the history of philosophy. Students are required to develop a detailed knowledge of the texts they study and of relevant aspects of their historical background. At the same time, they will exercise their own judgement on the interpretation of the texts and the arguments and other materials they contain.

Objectives

This paper offers an introduction to the study of the history of philosophy. Students taking this paper will be expected to:

1. Acquire a detailed knowledge of some of the arguments contained in the texts.
2. Acquire an understanding of how different sections of the texts relate to one another.
3. Engage in close criticism with the arguments studied.
4. Develop their own powers of philosophical analysis and argument, through study of the set texts.

Reading List

An asterisk (*) indicates a classic item or one which provides a good route into a topic.
